Hello Musqueam community members,

The Language and Culture Department is looking for proposals for two artworks to be used for the Musqueam language app:

- 1) One artwork will serve as the language app's icon button and should fit within a small square or circle.
- 2) The second artwork will be suitable for the app's 'splash' or loading screen. Photos of our traditional territory would be very welcome.

Submissions for each of these categories - the icon and the splash screen - should be representative of Musqueam language and or culture and or territory. Artists can submit work for either one or both of the requested artworks.

Please include your contact information with your submission(s) and send a high resolution digital file to Jill Campbell online at <jill.campbell@musqueam.bc.ca> and/or deliver a hard copy of your original to the Musqueam Administration office, Attention: Jill Campbell, Musqueam Language and Culture Department.

If your submission is selected, you will be contacted regarding an honorarium.

Closing date for submissions is 5:00 pm, on Friday May 7, 2021.

MUSQUEAM INDIAN BAND SEEKING MEMBERS FOR COMMITTEES OF COUNCIL

EXTENDED APPLICATION CLOSING DATE

The Musqueam Indian Band is updating their governance model to better reflect Musqueam cultural values. The Musqueam Chief & Council and Administration are seeking Musqueam members to sit on the five Standing Committees of Chief & Council for a one-year term. Each committee is required to have Musqueam members as part of the committee structure. The Committees of Council are:

- Community Services (CS)
- Finance and Administration (F&A)
- Intergovernmental Affairs (IGA)
- Lands, Capital and Housing (LCH)
- Transition

The Terms of Reference and mandates for the Committees of Chief & Council are available on the Musqueam Indian Band website <https://www.musqueam.bc.ca/>.

Each committee will include three Musqueam members: one Elder (over 65 years of age), one youth (18-35 years of age) and one member at large.

Referencing the mandate letter for each of the committees, a person with an interest to serve on any one of the particular committees should complete the attached application to the attention of Devin Sharma, C.A.O. Musqueam Indian Band. The applicant should identify their particular interest in being appointed and include their background, knowledge and experience (this should include their life experience, education and knowledge). The applicant should speak about their ability to work respectfully and constructively in bringing community knowledge and views to the committee.

The C.A.O. and two respected Elders with knowledge of the Musqueam members will be responsible for making the selection and presenting it to Chief & Council for approval. In making their recommendations, the C.A.O. and the Elders will consult with the Chairs (Heads of Family) of the committees for fit and suitability.

How to Apply:

Please fill out the attached application form to the attention of the Devin Sharma, C.A.O., Musqueam Indian Band and email to execassist@musqueam.bc.ca by Wednesday May 12, 2021.

Register your Newborn

Online Birth Registration

Online birth registration is the simplest way to register your child's birth, and apply for a birth certificate, the Medical Services Plan, Canada Child Benefits, and a Social Insurance Number.

Register your Newborn Birth registration is free, but you'll need a credit card to order a birth certificate at the same time.

Required Information

You need the following information to register your child's birth online:

- date of your child's birth
- names you have chosen for your child
- name of the hospital or other place in B.C. where the birth took place
- parents' surnames as they appear on their current birth certificates or change of name certificates
- parents' dates and places of birth, and current ages
- parents' Personal Health Numbers (BC CareCard)

Use the Vital Statistics Agency's secure online service to register your child's birth. It takes 3-4 weeks to register a birth and issue birth certificates. Incomplete or late documents can cause delays. For more information, see Birth Registration.

First Nations Health Authority INFANT ENROLLMENT

First Nations infants up to 18 months are eligible for Health Benefits as long as at least one parent meets the Health Benefits eligibility criteria. To register an infant under an eligible parent, clients should submit the following documents to FNHA Health Benefits by mail or fax:

- A copy of the infant's birth certificate; and
- An MSP Change Request Form, available online at <http://www.fnha.ca/benefits/MSP>

After 18 months, the infant will no longer be covered under the eligible parent and will need to be registered with

Why should I use this service?

Electronic Birth Registration is the fastest and easiest way to register your child, get a birth certificate, and apply for MSP coverage, Canada child benefits, and a SIN. Applying online saves you the extra work of repeating the same information

Health Benefits under their own status number. To register an infant for Health Benefits under their own account clients must:

- First Register the infant for Indian Status at a local band office or Indigenous Services Canada (ISC); and
- Once “Temporary Confirmation of Registration” is received, call Health Benefits at 1.855.550.5454 with the child’s new status number to complete the registration process.

First Nations' Basic Medical Coverage

The First Nations Health Authority enrolls and administers MSP to all Status Indians who are residents of B.C. (excluding persons who receive health benefits by way of a First Nations organization pursuant to self-government agreements with Canada).

FNHA Health Benefits and MSP

The Health Benefits Program manages MSP for First Nations people in BC. If you have status and need to register for MSP, do so through Health Benefits.

MSP registration forms are available online or by calling Health Benefits at 1-855-550-5454.

If you are Metis or Inuit and have questions about the BC Medical Services Plan, please call Health Insurance BC at 1-800-663-7100.

Safe Drinking Water Monitoring Program

Charlene Campbell-Wood

Community Based Drinking Water Quality Monitoring Program

Community Based Drinking Water Monitors (CBWM) play a key role in the Drinking Water Safety Program as the designated person responsible for sampling, testing, recording and communicating the microbiological quality of drinking water within the community. The CBWM is also responsible for distributing results and may assist with developing and carrying out a drinking water quality awareness program.

The CBWM may be a Community Health Representative (CHR), Water Treatment Plant Operator (WTPO), or another individual selected by the Band. If a community does not have a CBWM, the activities may be completed by the FNHA Environmental Health Officer or an FNHA Environmental Health Technician. Environmental Health Officers train CBWMs to sample and test the drinking water for potential microbial contamination using community lab equipment (Colilert®).

WaterTrax®, an internet-based data management system, is used to securely manage all drinking water quality data to which the CBWM, Band Health Directors, and the Drinking Water Safety Program (DWSP) team have access

SUMMER EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY ASSISTANT, NATIVE YOUTH PROGRAM (NYP)

MOA is hiring an Indigenous university or college student for the NYP Assistant Manager.

Term: June 7 to August 20, 2021 (11 weeks)

Full-time; 35 hours a week: Monday to Friday

Salary: 18.04 per hour

Program description

Now in its 42nd Year, the Native Youth Program (NYP) is a 7-week work study program for six urban Indigenous high school students aged 15-18. It is co-sponsored by the Museum of Anthropology (MOA) and the UBC First Nations House of Learning. NYP gives students an opportunity to research their own and other Indigenous cultures through the museum collection and online resources and participate in workshops and study trips. They also learn about the resources at the UBC First Nations House of Learning and the Museum of Anthropology. Students learn from elders, leaders and artists; research the museum collection; create videos, blogs, short films, develop visitor tours of the Multiversity Galleries and develop public presentation skills using new media. For more information, please visit the website <https://moa.ubc.ca/indigenous-access-and-engagement/nyp/>.

Job Description: The primary responsibilities of the NYP Assistant are to support the summer program and the NYP students.

This job includes:

- Supporting the implementation of the summer NYP curriculum in collaboration with the NYP Manager and the Curator of Indigenous Programs;
- Supporting the daily operation of the Program by preparing schedules, tracking attendance, and preparing all communication documents for the summer program;
- Helping with administrative work, such as arranging payments for guests, and contributing to the NYP social media feeds;
- Supporting NYP students in the creation of short films. This will include assisting students in the use of basic video editing software, setting up shoots in the gallery, liaising with MOA curatorial and collection staff;
- Actively working the students in workshops organized as part of the summer curriculum;
- Participating in all workshops and assists in organizing all visiting guests including Elders and artists, liaise with Museum staff and security.

This year, the NYP Assistant will work closely with the Program Manager to ensure MOA COVID Safety Plan is understood and executed. This will include daily self-assessment checks, and physical distancing and mandatory mask wearing, among other things.

The position will report to the Curator of Indigenous Programs. The Curator will ensure the candidate is well supported. The candidate will also work alongside a team of students, interns, and other professionals at MOA. Supervisor: Damara Jacobs-Petersen, Curator of Indigenous Programs, damara.jp@ubc.ca phone: 604-822-5976

Qualifications:

Applicants must be engaged in post-secondary schooling and be planning to return to school in September. The ideal candidate is a second year or higher student, preferably in First Nation studies or related areas. She/he/they likes to work with youth and interact with museum visitors. A willingness to working with youth and museum visitors is required and a passion for making space for Indigenous perspectives is critical.

- Knowledge of First Nation issues is preferred, but an enthusiasm to learn alongside youth and museum professional staff is required.
- The candidate must have good communication skills and be willing to work in collaboration with others.
- Ability to interact with a wide range of people, including youth and museum visitors.
- Awareness of, and sensitivity to, issues and protocols for working with Indigenous and First Nations and/or other communities.
- Awareness and sensitivity to issues concerning working with information originating from Indigenous and First Nations and/or other communities is desirable.
- Effective oral and written communication, analytical, problem-solving, organizational and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to work both independently and within a team environment.
- Experience with digital video editing, social media and web usage is preferred.

Please send a cover letter and resume via email or mail to: Curator Indigenous Programs Damara Jacobs-Petersen damara.jp@ubc.ca UBC Museum of Anthropology, 6393 N.W. Marine Drive, Vancouver, B.C. V6T 1Z2.

The NYP is funded by the Aboriginal Community Career Employment Services Society (ACCESS), Young Canada Works, and is also supported by the First Nations Initiatives fund at MOA.

*Please note that only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
