Dear Musqueam Community Members:

Moving forward through the latest developments of the Covid-19 Pandemic, we need to continue to limit or STOP movement between multiple families & other people's homes > to protect our Elders and those with compromised immune systems.

The Stay in-Place recommendation is meant to stop the spread of Covid-19 throughout the community by asking people to not interact socially with other households or families at this time. Individuals can still go to work, school or appointments if they are feeling well.

We are still seeing the number of positive cases rising day by day and we recommend continuing to practice limiting social interactions and not visiting homes of others. Anyone experiencing any symptoms should isolate and monitor those symptoms for 24 hours.

If the symptoms continue – please call the COVID hotline 236 688 4821 and request a rapid test from the health department. If you are positive, you will be required to submit an online survey – which will alert PHSA to call you!

- If you test positive > you will have to quarantine for FIVE (5) days if you have 2 vaccinations.
- If you do not have 2 vaccinations, you will have to quarantine for 10 days.
- If you are still having symptoms – cough, runny nose - after your isolation period, you will need to isolate for an additional period of time.

We are extending our Stay-In Place recommendation.

This means

if you are Not Sick - you can still go to work, school, appointments, dining out, get gas, grocery shop, etc. What it does mean is that you should only visit or have interactions with your immediate family or household; and not visit multiple homes for social visits.

Be mindful of homes with Elders or persons individuals with compromised immune systems and do not visit for social reasons.

These recommendations are being extended to align with the Provincial Health restrictions currently in place until January 18th, 2022.

Call for interest: Vancouver Public Library Board Trustee

The Vancouver Public Library (VPL) currently has an opening for a Board Trustee. This is a volunteer role. The VPL is on the unceded traditional territories of the Musqueam, Squamish, and Tsleil-Watuth Nations, and holds Reconciliation as a key institutional priority. We are seeking ways to respect and recognize the leadership of the local Nations, and would very much welcome inquiries from interested Nation members. I would be pleased to respond personally and provide any further details or information.

We will note that the current Library Act in BC requires that Library board trustees are residents or electors in Vancouver. This definition means that members of Musqueam, Squamish and Tsleil-Watuth Nations who are living in Vancouver are eligible, as well as members on Musqueam reserve lands, but members living outside of the City of Vancouver are not. The Library is currently exploring what legislative change will be needed in order to broaden eligibility to all members of the local Nations, as we see this as part of our responsibilities in implementing the rights of the local Nations under UNDRIP and the Library's commitments to Reconciliation.

In general, Library trustees are responsible for:

- Establishing the library's strategic direction and priorities
- Developing library policy
- Monitoring progress and spending against the library's budget
- Directing library system operations through the chief librarian

The role requires that a trustee participate in Library Board meetings eight times per year, as well as committee meetings, for a total of approx. 12 hours in each month with meetings. Transportation and childcare expenses related to trustee duties are reimbursed. Further Information for those interested in Library Board positions is available here: <https://www.vpl.ca/about/board>.

We hope you will not hesitate to reach out directly with any questions or further discussion (contact details below). We also invite you to share this information with those in your networks who may be interested. We would also be pleased to set up virtual meetings for those interested throughout January.

Thank you,
Christina de Castell
