Musqueam Education Notice Friday June 24, 2022

"The New Relationship Trust Foundation (NRTF) is pleased to announce that the first call for 2022-2023 Scholarships and Bursaries is now available for First Nations students from British Columbia (BC).

Contributions from NRTs generous Partners allowed the NRT Foundation to support over 280 Indigenous students with Scholarships and Bursaries in 2021-22. Almost all Indigenous students face financial barriers while attending post-secondary school and the NRT Foundation's Scholarship and Bursary program eases financial struggles so students can focus on the studies and excel. "

For the 2022-23 year the NRT Foundation has partnered with organizations interested in advancing Indigenous educational success and will be administering awards on behalf of:

- New Relationship Trust - First Nations Health Authority - Keegan Combes Memorial Awards
- Drillwell Enterprises - Peace Hills Trust - BC Council of Forest Industries
- Coastal GasLink - Technical Safety British Columbia - Andrea Reimer Award
- Indigenous Leaders Scholarship

To apply for these awards Students only need to submit an application to the NRT Foundation.

For more information and to submit your application please visit: <https://www.nrtf.ca/apply-for-funding/>

NRT Foundation first call applications are due June 24 at 4:30pm PST

Native Education College

Where Learners Become Leaders

Good day,

My name is Howard Calliou Campbell and I am the Dean of Educational Outreach for the Native Education College. I will be at the Musqueam Community Centre on Thursday, July 7 from 2:00pm—4:00pm to answer any questions you may have about our programs here at the college.

If you are interested in Healthcare, Indigenous Justice, Education, or Land Stewardship, to name a few, NEC is the place for you. We offer these programs in a culturally safe and supportive environment where you can complete these programs to either enter the workforce or springboard into further study.

Please come and see me if you have questions.

Respectfully,

Howard Calliou Campbell

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Faculty of Medicine

INDIGENOUS MD ADMISSIONS WORKSHOP

JULY 27-29, 2022

The 19th annual Indigenous MD Admissions Workshop will take place at the Northern Medical Program, located on the University of Northern British Columbia campus in Prince George, BC.

EXPLORE A FUTURE IN MEDICINE

If you are thinking about pursuing a future in medicine, this is a unique opportunity to learn how UBC can support you in your studies and connect with an inclusive, caring community of medical practitioners, students, and faculty.

Our annual pre-admissions workshop for Indigenous pre-med students isn't just for those already in university. Prospective students, including post-secondary and high school students can explore what it means to attend university and embark on a journey to becoming a healthcare professional.

JOIN A CARING COMMUNITY

Being part of a community is important—it helps people feel connected to traditions and knowledge unique to them. At the UBC Faculty of Medicine, we are a community that celebrates our students' diverse perspectives on healthcare and Indigenous ways of knowing.

For nineteen years we've been providing the Indigenous MD Admissions Workshop dedicated to welcoming Indigenous people into our faculty and supporting them as they make a commitment to study medicine. We know that our annual workshop will give you an introduction to our community and help you feel more confident about your decision to study medicine.

WHY ATTEND?

To learn

- Find out about prerequisites, course planning, and get a preview of the medical curriculum and residency programs.
- Get an overview of the Medical College Admissions Test (MCAT), and learn about the UBC interview process by participating in mock interviews.
- Gain familiarity with the application process and admission requirements.

Meet faculty & staff

- Hear stories from doctors and faculty who chose UBC.
- Learn about student supports from a member of the Student Affairs team.
- Get the facts about your financial options from the Faculty of Medicine's Student Financial Assistance Officer.

Feel supported

- Learn about preparing your application from our MD Indigenous Initiatives Coordinator.
- Better understand specific Indigenous resources and support for students with Indigenous ancestry, including Status & non-Status Indians or Treaty, Métis & Inuit peoples.
- Hear from a local Elder during the opening and closing remarks.
- Ask questions of Indigenous medical students and residents to learn about their experiences.
- Find out more about what pursuing a career in medicine entails.

If you're feeling apprehensive about pursuing a medical degree, our workshop is one of the best ways to reduce your doubts, fears, or anxieties about pursuing your goal of becoming a medical doctor. You'll gain personal insights and guidance about your choice to study medicine with us.

We are excited about the remarkable students, alumni, and faculty who will be presenting and advising over all three days of the workshop and we hope you'll join us in July 2022.

WE'VE GOT YOU COVERED

There is no cost to attend the workshop.

Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, our workshop might look a little different than it has in the past, depending on public health guidelines. The decision to host the workshop in person or virtually will be announced in due time and successful applicants will be notified by email.

Should the workshop be hosted in person, the university will cover your accommodations and meals, however travel to/from the workshop will be your responsibility.

NEXT STEPS: YOUR WORKSHOP APPLICATION

Apply online at:

https://ubc.ca/qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_OD4S4HRDke8seKV

Along with your application, you'll need to prepare and submit:

- A 500-word autobiographical essay, including who you are and why you want to become a doctor.
- A copy of your most recent transcripts or report card.
- A copy of your proof of ancestry such as status, treaty and Métis membership cards. We also accept written letters of support from your Band, Inuit and Métis organizations.

We encourage you to get your application in as soon as possible. If you have any questions about the workshop, please reach out to us.

10 Life-Changing Reasons to Drink More Water

Becca Borawski Jenkins, University of Southern California,
Managing Editor

Has it occurred to you today that you are thirsty? Guess what – by the time you experience the sensation of the thirst, you are already dehydrated. That thirst is your body calling for re-hydration.

Your body is composed of roughly 60% water¹. That means when we are dehydrated – and most of us spend our days constantly dehydrated to some degree – we are affecting the performance of the majority of our body. Nearly all of our systems do not function as well without the proper water intake.

Today: Celebrate National Indigenous Peoples Day at MOA

Come out to MOA today on National Indigenous Peoples Day for a selection of short films that feature the work and words of xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam) artists, cultural knowledge keepers and community members.

Share in these stories in recognition of the traditional, ancestral and unceded territory that MOA is located on. These short films honour xʷməθkʷəy̓əm's presence and stewardship of this land since time immemorial. The films explore xʷməθkʷəy̓əm history, learning the hə́ŋqəmi̓hə́ŋ language, reviving Coast Salish weaving, and the creation of the Reconciliation Pole at UBC (pictured here).
